THURSDAY, Feb. 23

Feature of today's stock market was extensive liquidation, particularly in sections of the list that have heretofore barely reflected sympathy with stocks that have suffered serious losses because of specific unfavorable developments.

ions of 7 1/2 cent. The decline in this stock market was not extended to about 13 points, cannot be attributed entirely to short selling.

The second largest dealings were in Reading, and though the fluctuations in its price were comparatively narrow it sold at the lowest price yet recorded, and closed 1 1/2 cent. lower than on Tuesday.

The news that was most influential in making prices to-day consisted of Mr. Ives's letter to the President of the Wisconsin Central Company and the retirement of Mr. Parsons and his friends from the management of the New York and New England Railroad Company.

The unwillingness of Mr. Parsons and his friends to enter upon a contest to perpetuate themselves in the control of the New York and New England Company, as set forth in detail in another column, is important as an expression from a successful railroad manager as to the value of the property and also as foreshadowing the future of the company.

The granter stocks received more attention than they have for a long time, particularly St. Paul and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. It was of a sort, however, that left those stocks 2 1/2 cent. lower than on Tuesday.

Final sales compare with those of Tuesday as follows:
